PHILADELPHIA CAR STRIKE. NO DISTURBANCE REPORTED Public Safety Director Says 2,600 Men

Returned to Work. Philadelphia, March 8 .- Today was the most uneventful that this city has experienced since the beginning of the treet car men's strike. There was no disturbance of any kind reported.

Both the police and the labor leaders busied themselves all day preparing statistics to support their widely divergent claims of the strength of the sympathetic strike. The labor leaders, after receiving reports from the secretaries of many local unions, reiterated their claim of 125,000 on strike and say that many

Mr. Kennedy, Sophie's senior counsel, spent a greater portion of the afternoon in endeavoring to place in evidence the fact that Sophie was not strong enough to have pulled the trigger of the revolver which it is alleged was used in the killing of the dead man. John D. Bassett of New Haven was on the scand, having qualified as a gun expert, and he was asked by Mr. Kennedy if in his opinion a man, or woman, or girl could fire the revolver in rapid succession. Both the prosecution and counsel for Mitchell objected. Mr. Kennedy explained to the court that it was his purpose to soow dustry will be made public.

Director of Public Safety Clay on the other hand, stated tonight that a re-canvass of the city's industrial establishments, made today, shows that while 1,900 workers walked out today, 2,600 strikers returned to work.

Leading manufacturers of hosiery Leading manufacturers of hosiery met today and decided to close down their plants employing 29,000 workers, until Monday. The employers stated that five hundred "boarders," who are in the sympathetic strike, made this step necessary.

John Maloney, 18 years old, and Michael Osborn, 24. were also shot in the legs, and Frank Bromiley, 23, received a bullet in his foot. These wounded were removed to the Frankford hospital. Two other injured were taken to their homes.

After reaching Allegheny avenue, the car was switched to the northbound track by its crew and the dash back to the barn began. So swiftly was it driven that before the crowd realized that it was coming back it had sped that it was coming back it had sped past them and into the barn again. The shooting of inoffensive bystanders worked the crowd to a high pitch of excitement and as other cars came down the street the mob wrecked them, in several instances leaving only the trucks on the rails. About a dozen arrests were made.

CROWDED BY OLEOMARGARINE

Elgin, Ill., March 8.—D. S. Pearsall, a member of the Eigin board of trade, denied today that the plan to investigate high prices of living had anything to do with the action of the Elgin board in reducing the price of butter. The high prices, he said, caused the average man to turn to oleomargarine, which created a surplus in the butter supply, which had to be sold.

"The only way to sell it was to lower the price," he added. "When the board reduced the cost from 36 cents to 36 cents a pound, the commodity again came within reach of the ordinary buyer."
